1. On ¹⁹~~25~~ November the July 1972 CT Class, the CTP Staff and their wives met [] to discuss the role of the Agency wife. This appeared to be the most successful of these meetings that we have had to date. With previous Classes, we have split wives and CT's, and the CT's reviewed their Interim Assignments while their wives saw a movie and met with the wives of the CT Staff. This time we scheduled a separate meeting in the Chamber of Commerce Building to review the Interim Assignments, and [] the whole group discussed a series of questions which [] had prepared on relevant topics. As a result of this discussion, the CT wives had an opportunity to raise questions relating to their future role in the Organization and develop a better appreciation of the issues to which they should be giving serious consideration. Although this meeting should provide a good platform for the wives' session [] during the BOC, we are anxious for the CT's and their wives to focus on this subject before the CT's are that far down the road.
